

... YOU KNOW? ...

HEARING + LISTENING SKILLS

Can affect your child's social skills at school and during playdates?

A person with good social skills is able to maintain conversations, listen to and understand others, and make sure that they are understood. A hearing loss can impair one's ability to be social.

For more information, or to find an audiologist near you, visit www.bcaslpa.ca

