

... YOU KNOW? ...

AUDIOLOGISTS

Can help to determine whether your child can hear the difference between sounds in spoken words?

This important literacy skill can be affected by hearing loss or difficulty listening in noisy environments. Have your child's hearing tested by an audiologist if they are having difficulty listening or understanding spoken messages in the classroom.

For more information, or to find an audiologist near you, visit www.bcaslpa.ca.