

Sharing
a joke with your best friend.

Listening to your grandchild tell
you about their
first day of school.

Telling your parents about your favourite adventures.

Giving that presentation for the job you always dreamed of.

As simple as
being able to order
a cup of coffee.

Communicating is connecting

If you or someone you know is experiencing communication difficulties, the BC Association of Speech-Language Pathologists and Audiologists can help.

Visit bcaslpa.ca to find out more.

What does communicating mean to you?
Use #communicatingis to be entered into our prize draw.
