

May is Speech and Hearing Month!

Registered speech-language pathologists and audiologists will be available to offer advice and support for all ages - from childhood to advanced age.

Join us on

Ask questions you may have about communication difficulties.

Discover local resources and support networks for speech and hearing in your area.

Pick up bright, free resources for aiding your child's development.

Find out more about the importance of communication and how you can help others.

WALK-INS WELCOME. COME ANYTIME!

For further information visit speechandhearingbc.ca.