

Speech and Hearing BC Policy Statement & Procedures

1.26

AREA: Governance

SUBJECT: Editor of Vibrations and Regular Contributors to Vibrations

POLICY:

“Vibrations” is the quarterly membership publication of Speech and Hearing BC.

PROCEDURE:

- Applications to be The Editor of Vibrations will be reviewed and selected by Provincial Council (PC).
- Should the position of Editor become vacant a call to the membership will be made by e-mail blast requesting applications to submitted to PC for consideration.
- The Editor will review all submissions and advertisements to decide on value to membership, for content and appropriateness.
- Contributors will be reviewed and selected by the Editor in consultation with the President or Designate of Provincial Council.
- Contributors will submit article/s for Vibrations to the editor for review prior to inclusion in Vibrations.
- The Editor will receive a complimentary conference registration
- Contributors may be compensated for their work at a rate of $50 per article per administrative approval.
- The Editor will set deadlines for submissions.
- The Editor will send out an e-mail to members to request additional content for Vibrations as required.